

Police Week softball tourney

The 377th Security Forces Squadron hosted Kirtland AFB's annual "Police Week," May 10-14. Members from 377th Security Forces Squadron, Albuquerque Police Department, Drug Enforcement Agency and other local law enforcement agencies participated in activities such as a softball tournament, firearms competition and inter-agency training. The law enforcement units also came together to hand out gun locks at the BX to promote firearm safety.

Photo by Todd Berenger